

Karen Wyzykowski Now Mrs. Robert J. Martinek

Rev. John V. Hegarty, pastor, officiated at the nuptial mass and double ring marriage ceremony at the St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church in Lomita recently, when Miss Karen Louise Wyzykowski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wyzykowski of Lomita, became the bride of Robert John Martinek.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white bridal taffeta with a full chapel train, attached at the waistline with a tailored bow. A floral embroidery design accented the scoop neckline and extended down the front of the gown. A large white chiffon rose secured the bouffant elbow-length illusion veil and the bride carried a cascade of white orchids, roses and chrysanthemums.

The bride's attendants wore long red taffeta gowns with triple pouf bows as back interest. Red bows anchored their short illusion veils and each carried a cascade of white roses and chrysanthemums.

Attendants were Miss Elaine Wyzykowski, maid of honor; Mrs. Richard Baglio, Miss Andrea Martinek, and Miss Maria Wyzykowski. Denise Wyzykowski was her sister's flower girl.

David Byers of Pittsburgh, Pa., stood as best man and ushers were Richard Baglio and James Hilinski.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the St. James parish hall. A buffet luncheon was served with the wedding cake and other refreshments. Miss Dona Coscia registered the guests.

The newlyweds spent a honeymoon on the east coast where they attended the World's Fair before returning to the Southland to make their home.

Among the many out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Martinek of Pittsburgh, Pa., parents of the bridegroom.

CDA Forms New Circle For Missions

Court St. Catherine 1378, Catholic Daughters of America, initiated its second World Mission circle recently at the home of Mrs. Ralph Sullivan. The Misses Cathryn and Felice Shaughnessy, co-chairmen of the first mission circle formed by the court, were special guests for the evening.

The new group will make vestments, altar linens and rosaries for various missions around the world. As the Mission Circles are self-supporting, they are at present making many holiday and year-round gift items from which all money derived will be used for materials or cash donations to the missions.

Mrs. J. W. Crew was elected chairman with Mrs. Laurence Derouin as treasurer of the newly-formed circle.

Attending the first meeting were Meses. Charles Butterfield, Robert Klaesges, Louie Derouin, Paul D. Cuir, J. W. Crew, Laurence Derouin, George Rausch, Thomas Moore, Ralph Sullivan; Misses Cathryn Shaughnessy and Felice Shaughnessy.

Anyone interested in joining the group may contact any of the above names or a member of Court St. Catherine.

Club Hostess

Mrs. Richard Hauser, 912 Javelin Ave., was hostess to her neighborhood bridge club last Wednesday evening.

Following the serving of a dessert, bridge was played with Mrs. Hauser holding high score, Mrs. Eugene Blyanatz, second, and Mrs. James Rodolff, third.

Mrs. Hauser's guests were Meses. John Linder, Hugh Sternberg, Burtran Langer, William Stephens, J. L. Miller, Bolyanatz and Rodolff.

Mrs. Steinberg will be hostess to the club this evening.

Anniversary
